

Fire! FIRE! FIRE!

MYERS & BELL'S

SALVAGE Sale of SHOES, FOR CASH

Commencing

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 22nd.

Every pair of the $12,000 stock of Shoes Must Go! The Greatest Shoe Sale Marshall Has Ever Seen! Friday noon, December 15th, fire in the printing office above our store caused our store to be flooded with water, and our stock to be damaged. Now that the insurance has been adjusted, we will sell our stock out At Fire Sale Prices! In a large majority of cases goods have not had a drop of water on them. Our loss is Money in Your Pockets! Come early, before stock is Broken! (Rubber Goods not included in this Sale.)

MAYERS & BELL'S OLD STAND.

Corner Shoe Store, - - - MARSHALL, MO.

A lovely assortment of towels at Wright's wrights is headquarters for ladies buying Christmas presents.

See Haynie Bros before buying your Xmas candies.

S P. Huston, of Malta Bend, made a flying visit to Marshall this week.

See the Thompson Sisters with the Graham Earle Co. Opera House next week.

Mrs. Sallie Kincaid has returned from a visit to friends at Sweet Springs.

Mr and Mrs J. W. Goodwin, of Alma, will spend Christmas week with Mrs. R. E. L. Smith.

A letter from John Guthrey and Bob Page from old Mexico, sounds a little homesick.

Nothing could be nicer for a Xmas present than 6 of those handsome towels at Wright's.

Ray John G. Paton D. D. was the guest of Mr and Mrs. J. VanDyke while in the city.

Ice-cream squares in blacks and whites, a nice present for mother or sister at Wright's.

Miss Velma Owen, of Slater, was the guest several days this week of Mrs. Estelle Davies.

W. L. McCormick, of Quincy, Ill., the guest of John Pickett and family, left Friday for his home.

Barry N. Ashbury and wife of Higginville, were guests recently of Mrs. Claude Young on Eastwood.

Mrs. Adolph Hansberger and daughter Miss Viola, of Mt. Leonard, were shopping in Marshall Friday.

Miss Julia Holman, who teaches the George school near Osceola, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Schluter is the only fruit cake baker in Marshall.

Is life worth living? That depends upon the LIVER. People who buy at Schluter's find it a pleasure to live.

Bert Powers, of St. Joe, will arrive Saturday and will be the guest of friends in the city until after the holidays.

Try a box of Schluter's delicious lion bones.

George Henderson, of Pittsburg, Pa., came Wednesday morning for a visit to his sister Mrs. W. H. Black on College Hill.

Graham Earle, Opera House next week. Prices 10 and 25c.

Buy your Xmas oysters and celery at Schluter's. They have the best.

Mrs. T. L. Atkins and son Dio, arrived from the South Thursday for a visit to W. H. Paschke and family on East Arrow St.

Something entirely new in ladies fancy combs at Wright's.

See James A. Walker for second candies. Thirty different kinds of nice penny goods at prices that will save you money.

No combing is complete without Schluter's fruit cake.

Frank Vogle, who is attending the Chicago University, arrived Friday for a visit to his sister Mrs. C. N. Hand on West North St.

A beautiful line of ladies neckwear in black velvet stocks, with jetted fringe, also jetted collars, the latest thing out, at Wright's.

Mrs. Butler and Miss Hoskins, of Janesville, Wisconsin, the guests of Mrs. Mansur, left Wednesday to spend the winter in San Angelo, Cal.

Millinery goods going at half price at Misses Mick & Cohenour's.

Will H. Hines arrived from Kirksville, where he is studying stenography and will spend the holidays at home, much to the pleasure of his friends.

20 boxes famous Florida oranges at 25 to 35c doz. Schluter & Co.

Miss Ivy Jeter returned from a visit to Miami friends on Friday; she left Saturday for her home in Malta Bend accompanied by Miss Annie Guthrey, who will make a visit.

The handsomest cut-glass goods ever shown in this city in tumblers, water pitchers, water bottles, puff boxes, salad dishes, etc., all in the newest cut, just received at Mitchell's quality store.

Dr and Mrs Galloway entertained the following young persons at dinner on Thursday evening at their home on South Odell: Misses Maude Mackey, Letitia Stephens and Prof. Peters.

Oysters fresh from Baltimore, at Schluter's.

Mr and Mrs Wambach, of Ashley, Ill. will arrive Sunday at the Lowenstein home on North street, where they will remain as guests until after the golden wedding of Mr and Mrs. J. I. Lowenstein.

Henry A. Black the accounting foreman of the MARSHALL REPUBLICAN, left Sunday for Lexington where he accepted a position with the "Intelligencer". Mr Black is a worthy energetic young man of good habits and we wish him success in his new field.

Mrs. J. M. Turner left Thursday for Booneville to spend the holidays with relatives.

Miss Grace Huston of Malta Bend was the guest several days this week of Mrs. Newman Newell.

Miss Letha Hansack came down yesterday to do some Xmas shopping.

Misses Lucy and Belle Smith, of Napton, were guests of friends in our city 3 on lay.

Clude Colvert came in from Cooper School, Booneville, to spend Xmas at home.

Mrs. George T. Eddy and little daughter came to see their friends on Monday and made a visit to Rev. J. W. Howell and wife on East Arrow St.

Married - at Marshall, Mo., on Dec. 20, 1904, by Chas. M. Hawley, Esq., Pey on Jones of Hardeeman and Miss Newcomb of Little Rock, Mo.